

Laura Wontrop Klauser
Cadillac Racing Program Manager
General Motors

Laura Wontrop Klauser was born and raised near Baltimore, Maryland. She received her Bachelors degree in Mechanical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Masters Degree in Engineering from the University of Michigan – Ann Arbor.

Laura started working at General Motors as a summer co-op student then started full time in 2008 after graduation from RPI. Currently she is the Cadillac Racing Program Manager overseeing the Cadillac DPi-V.R cars that race in the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship.

Laura is also heavily involved with SAE. Her participation started as a student in Formula SAE. She remains an active member and volunteer for the FSAE program holding the roll of Dynamic Events Coordinator.

She has served on the SAE Detroit Section Board since 2011 holding the Chair position for 2018.

