

Bill Frykman Bio
Executive Director
Ford Motor Company

Bill Frykman is the executive director of Ford Motor Company's North American City Solutions team. In this role, Bill works with a team of urban mobility experts engaging with cities to accelerate new mobility solutions. Through his 20 years at Ford, Bill has been at the forefront of technology including leadership roles on every connected vehicle program from the industry's first connected light-duty fleet vehicle to the Mustang Mach-E. Prior to joining Ford, Bill was a commercial banker in Los Angeles. Bill graduated from UCLA with a degree in economics and earned an MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Business. Bill resides in Birmingham, MI, with his wife and three children.